

DID YOU KNOW?

5

Facts About Co-operatives in Canada

1

Co-ops are viable corporations formed to address gaps in the marketplace.

A co-op is a legally incorporated corporation formed to solve a problem or common need.

2

Co-ops are accountable and inclusive.

A co-operative is jointly owned by its members, and operate with a democratic decision-making structure and a profit-sharing approach.

3

Co-ops are resilient.

According to a 2020 survey, 97% of the cooperatives surveyed indicated they had no intention to sell, transfer or close their business in the next 5 years, as opposed to 75% of all SMEs.

4

Co-ops are active across Canada in all sectors of the economy including: manufacturing, technology and renewable energy.

Visit crm.canada.coop/map to locate a Co-op in your area or anywhere in Canada.

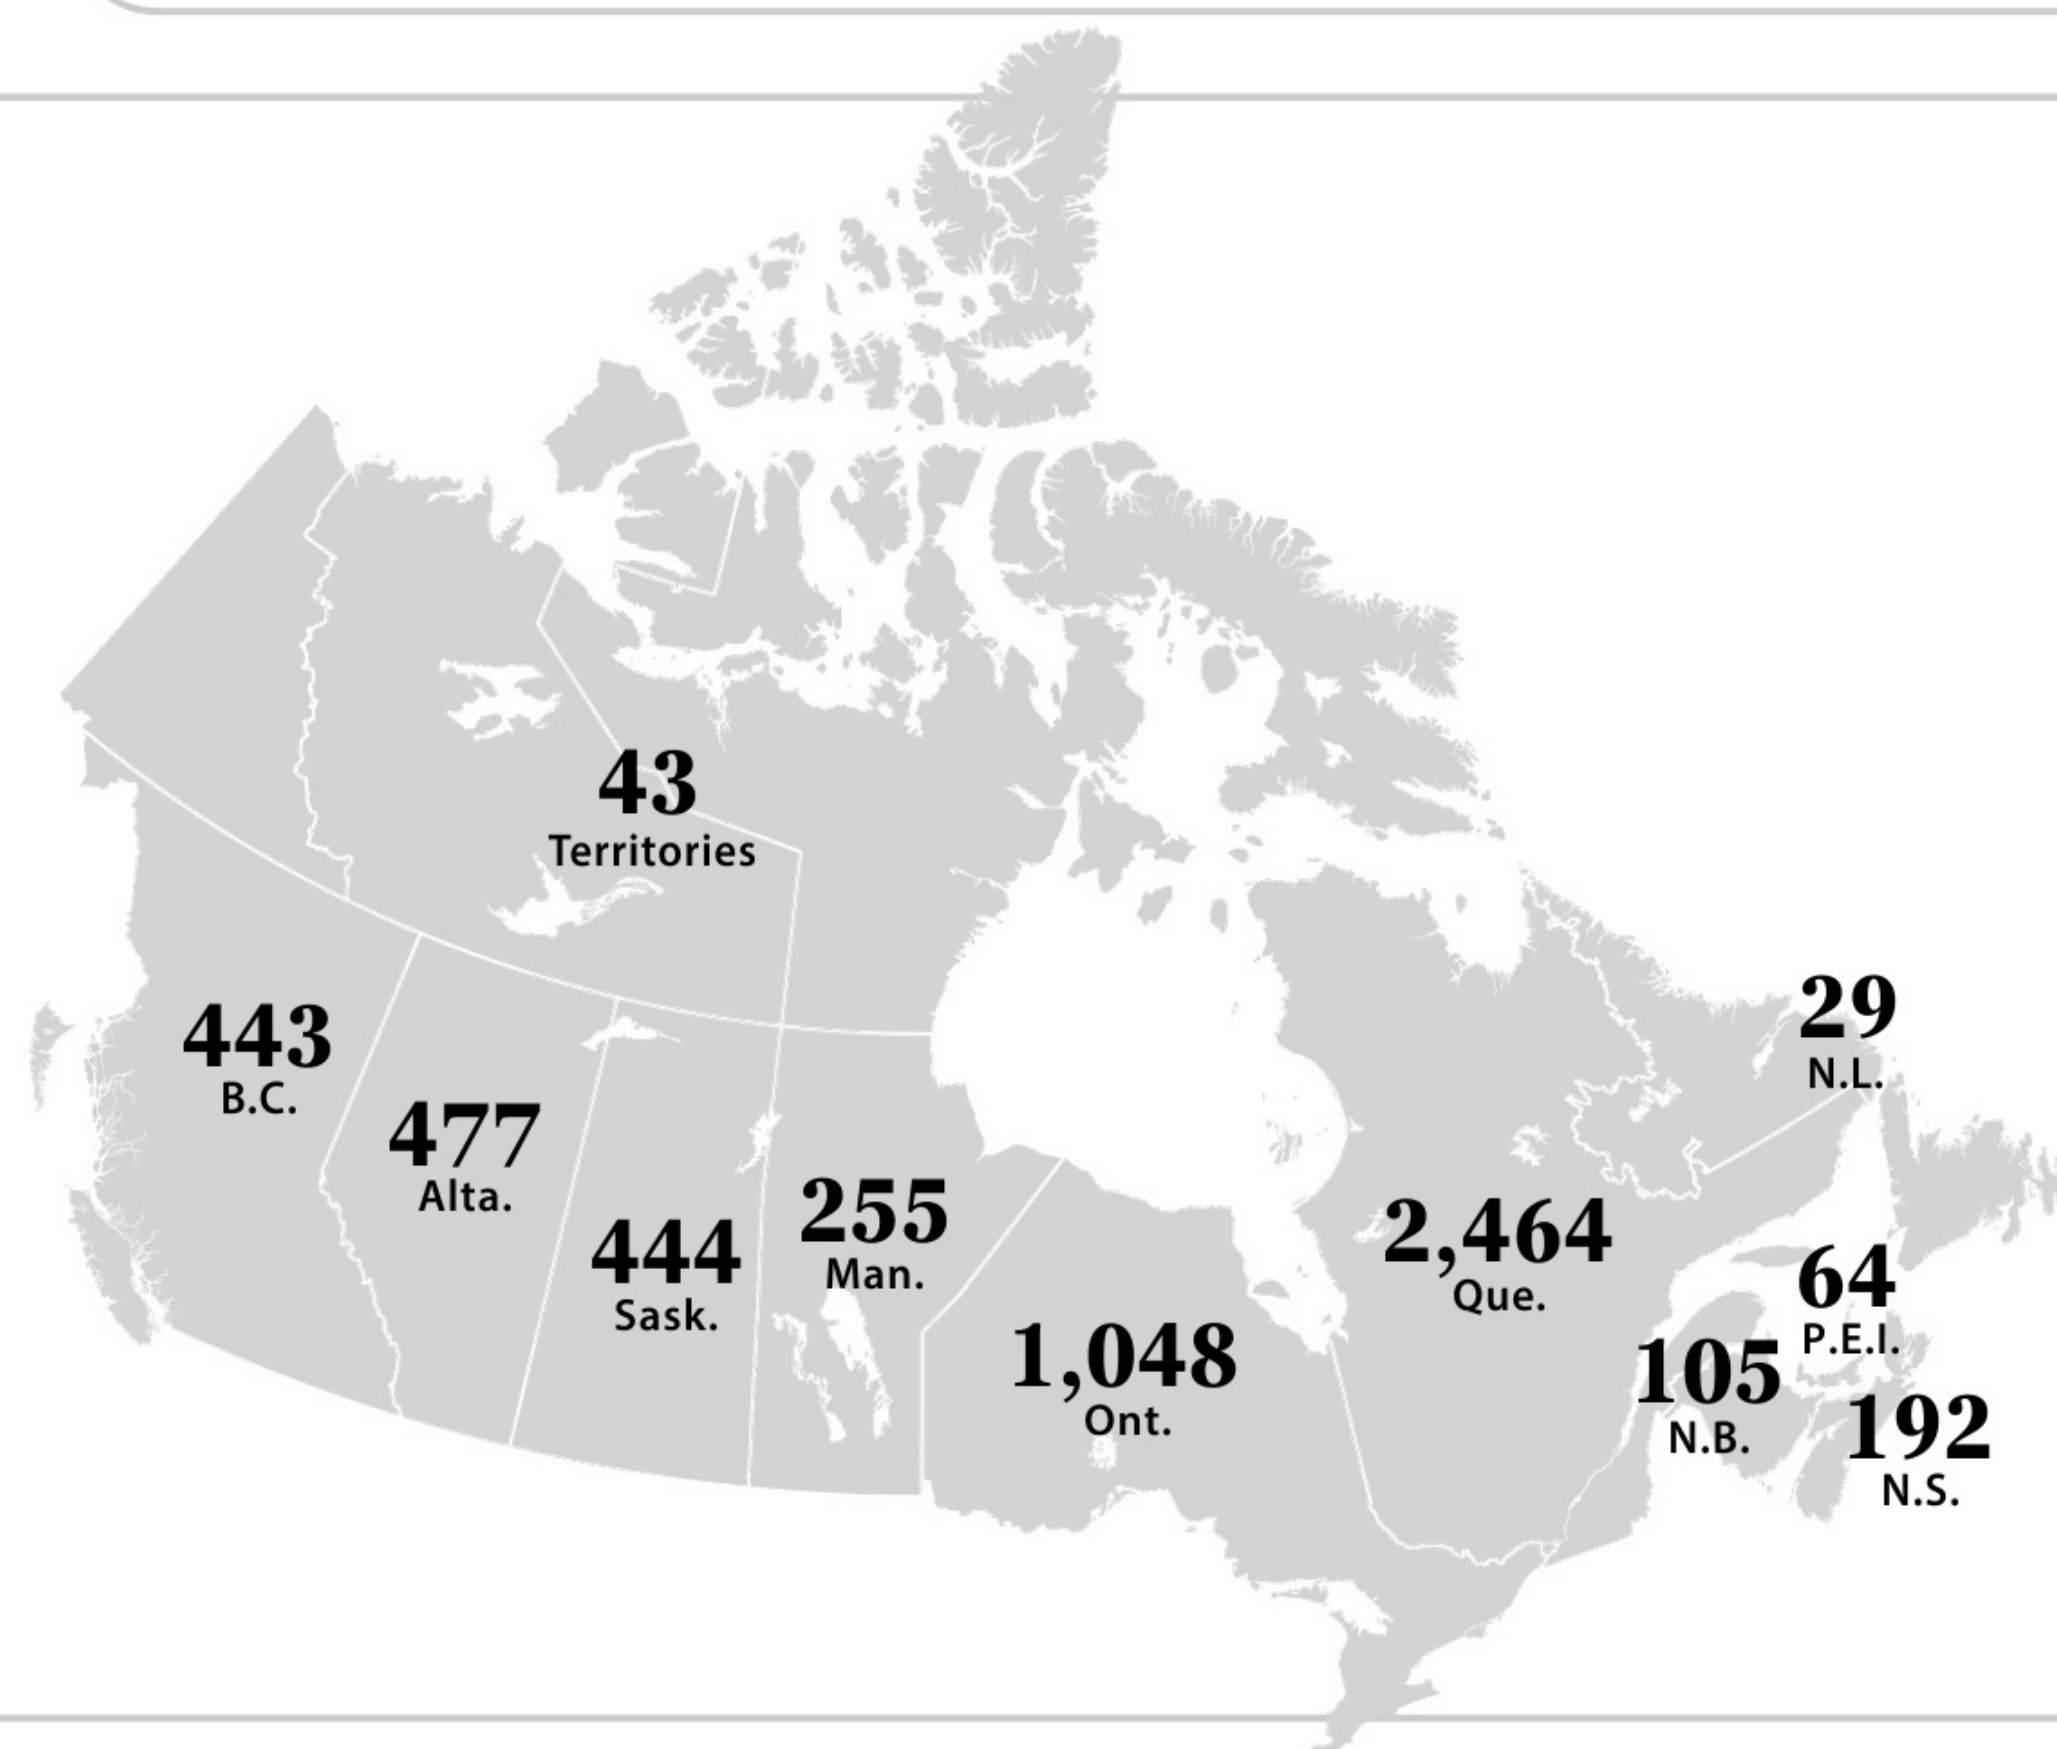

5

Co-ops support local economies, keeping money and jobs in the community.

In 2019, there were 5,564 non-financial co-operatives in Canada.

- generated $53.0 billion in total revenue
- held $45.6 billion in total assets
- employed 104,040 people
- paid $2.5 billion in salaries and wages

Canada 